Ward Falkner and NOC, GMOTCH, OTCH.
Spirit's Zim Zam Zoom OM4 UD6
competing at the AKC/Eukanuba National Obedience Invitational in 2009

Seminar / Workshop Topics

- How dogs learn – through association, consequences and reinforcement,
- How to apply the learning processes in training for competition obedience
- Using play training to create a positive attitude in your dog
- Getting a “want to” rather than “have to” attitude in your dog
- Heeling, recalls, scent work, signals, and go outs
- Training exercises in all areas of competitive obedience

Ward Falkner and Zoom's Team Accomplishments

- Over 250 High in Trials!
- 54 perfect 200's – a record in the history of Canadian obedience trialing
- Established a record for the number of perfect 200's achieved in a single year at 15
- Placed in Canada's Top Ten obedience dogs for past 6 years – 2008 as #1, presently ranked #3
- At two years old was the youngest dog in Canada to achieve the GMOTCh title
- High in Trial Golden Retriever Club of Canada National Specialty - 2008, 2009, 2011 with two perfect scores
- Invitee and participant in the AKC/Eukanuba National Invitational – 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012
- Winner AKC/Eukanuba National Invitational 2011 earning the title of NOC (National Obedience Champion)
- Only obedience team in history to have been ranked #1 in Canada and also win the U.S. National Obedience Invitational, and the only non-American team to have won the NOI

“This is an absolutely amazing team. Insanely accurate, while maintaining SPEED and STYLE!!! Everyone should be striving to attain all three . . . often, the style and speed get lost while pushing for more and more accuracy. Congrats, Ward and Zoom, well deserved.” Petra Ford, a fellow competitor, twice NOI Champion and 1st Place Tie in the Crufts World Obedience Championship.
